

Entry Garden
The welcoming entry - the presentation of Bowen Place. A character related to the historical brick wall - with openness, simplicity and definition giving legibility to the entry and distinction from the adjacent property.

- Entrance shelter, shelter, ramp, letter box zone, subject to future re-design.
- Palms add distinction, scale, interest - to be retained.
- Line of shrubs to semi-screen views of adjacent building and unattractive rear of boundary fence.

East Side Front Garden
A garden for social gatherings, relaxation, the joy of gardening - Leisure & Tranquility

- Some privacy from the street and footpath required.
- Existing plants from residents to be retained as much as possible.
- Fruit trees may be included.
- A place to propagate and tend to indoor plants is desirable.
- The seating area is well used and this space to be continued and enhanced. The garden to have a relaxed feel of a home garden - not commercial / impersonal or overly formal character.
